COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

DEATH OF J. G. BROWN.

It Was Foretold by a Young Lady Whom He Was to Escort to a Ball.

Nearly everybody here and along the rail-road knew J. G. (Big) Brown the conductor, who ran on the C. P. R. R. a few years ago. He died recently, says the Silver State, and J. K. Hopkins, now of Princeton, Illinois, sends the following relative to his death, from the Chicago Times of March 30th:

CARTHAGE, Ill., March 29.—A strange incident has come to light which may interest people who believe in the fulfillment of dreams. There was to be a ball in Dallas City, this county, a few days ago, and a prominent young society lady of the place was preparing to attend. Her escort was to have been J. G. Brown, a Santa Fe railroad conductor. The night preceding the party the young lady dreamed that she beheld a wagon drawn by two horses, and in the vehicle lay the mangled body of a man whom she could not fully recognize, but who strongly resembled her intended escort. The hideous dream frightened her, and in the morning she communicated it to several friends, who laughed at what was termed her foolish fancies. Conductor Brown was fatally mangled by the cars that day at noon, and as the solemn procession, headed by the wagon bearing the mangled remains, filled up the street, the young woman cried: "That is my dream! Oh, that was my dream!" and swooned away.

THE BECK AMENDMENT.

The bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase United States bonds with the Treasury surplus has passed the Senate with the Beck amendment attached. The bill originated in the House and was passed by that body. It will now go back to the House and will doubtless become a law.

The Beck amendment provides for the purchase and coining of silver bullion monthly equal in amount to the national bank notes that may be retired. This coining is to be in excess of the $2,000,000 coined monthly under the provisions of the Standard Dollar Act.

It was asserted by Senator Sherman, in his speech against the Beck amendment, that since the Democratic administration came into power the National bank circulation had been reduced $170,000,000. If such is the fact and the retiring of bank notes continues at that rate, says the Silver State, there will be a home market for all the silver bullion produced in the United States and the price of the metal will no longer be fixed by London brokers. England must purchase a large quantity of silver in foreign markets to supply the East India demand and it would be gratifying to every miner on the Pacific Coast to see it compelled to pay one dollar for every 412½ grains of bullion, 999 fine, that it has to buy. The ultimate effect of the bill will be to supplement national bank notes with coin certificates and restore silver to its old standard. This will create a demand for mines and revivify many mining camps in Nevada, which the demonetization of silver depopulated.

War Claims.

Senator Stewart appeared before the Senate Committee on Military Affairs Thursday and presented the claim of the State of Nevada for money paid by this State during the civil war for the enrollment, pay and transportation of troops. The State paid $119,800 during the war for this purpose, which it borrowed and upon which sum it has already paid $22,897 interest. The State now asks that this sum be returned to it. At the time the expense was incurred the officers of the Government promised that the State should be repaid for all the money expended in the equipment and transportation of troops employed to defend the overland stage line and for other purposes. The Committee decided to refer the matter to Walhall and Stewart for decision. The State has other claims against the Government, but these are not pressed at this time. Senator Stewart desires to secure the largest sum before presenting any others.—[Reno Journal.]

The Royce-Lansing Co.

The Virginia Chronicle of Thursday says: "To write that the Royce-Lansing Comedy Company gave a delightful and refined musical and mirth-provoking entertainment at the Opera House last evening but dimly conveys the sentiment of every person present. The musical part of the programme was a feast of melody and the comedy portion irresistibly mirth-provoking, and Ray L. Royce was unanimously conceded to surpass Sol Smith Russell as a light all-round comedian."

It can be said without flattery that the entertainment last evening was the most satisfactory of the season and insures the company liberal patronage this evening, which is the last of the engagement."

The Company will give an entertainment at Freeman Hall to-morrow night, and seats can be secured of Q. W. Hull, if they are not all taken.

Wily Dr. Zangerle.

The case of Dr. Zangerle of Virginia City, charged with having violated an ordinance in not having reported small pox cases he was attending to, came up for trial in Gold Hill yesterday. The doctor's attorney made a "ten-strike" by announcing that the defense had issued subpoenas for all the small pox patients of the doctor. The constable braved the anger of the court by returning the subpoena as unserved, as the Board of health had announced that the witnesses would not be allowed to attend court. As many of them are still ill with the scourge, the court considered the point well taken and continued the case until May 4th.—[Reno Gazette.]

cures of Scrofulous diseases continually add to the reputation of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. John McDonald, 124 Suffolk st., Lowell, Mass., says: "For a number of years I was a great sufferer from Scrofula, which manifested itself in early childhood. So virulent and offensive were the sores which appeared on my body, that my parents kept me from school most of the time. I became emaciated, pale, languid, and feeble, and my friends said it was Consumption. A physician in New York state recommended treatment with
